

TotalDairy Seminar Programme 2019

Speaker	Lectures	Workshops
Trevor De Vries	Social housing of calves: Why, when, and how? (producer level)	Challenges and opportunities with robotic milking (producer level)
	Nutritional management for optimal rumen health (advanced level)	Trevor De Vries and Greg Penner: Nutritional management for robotic milking herds (advanced level)
Marina von Keyserlingk	Management practices that improve dairy cattle welfare	"Imagining the future dairy industry" – an interactive session utilising wordcloud
	Feeding the milk fed dairy heifer - what have we learned.
	Public concerns about dairy cattle welfare: How should the dairy industry should respond?
Gerard Cramer	Achieving 0% Lameness: the producer's role	Producer Workshop: Practical aspects of achieving 0% lameness.
	Achieving 0% Lameness: the advisor's role	How do I facilitate lameness reduction on farm: an advisors workshop
Greg Penner	"Applied aspects of ruminal health"	"Gastrointestinal tract response to nutritional challenges" (advanced)
	"The role of sugar in dairy diets" (advanced)	Trevor De Vries and Greg Penner: Nutritional management for robotic milking herds (advanced level)
Sarne De Vliegheer	What have we recently learned on the role of the non-aureus staphylococci for bovine udder health	The role of the bovine practitioner in integrated mastitis management as a basis for prudent use of antimicrobials on dairy farms
	An update on heifer mastitis
Opening Address: Cees Jan Hollander, Danone		Global Milk marketing opportunities
Opening Address: Evidence Group		Challenges and Opportunities for the dairy producer
UK & European perspectives on supplier standards Q&A session
Public perception of dairy farming - presentation and debate Amy Jackson Susie Stanner		